Dear Rosalyn,

You are one of the reasons Allegheny College has earned regional and national praise. You were successful at Allegheny as a student and, now, you are successful in your career as a leader in your profession. I attribute Allegheny College's reputation to the success of graduates like you, Rosalyn.

Your contributions to Allegheny College reflect your success. You are changing the lives of our students. Thank you, Rosalyn, for consistently and significantly supporting our students as a member in the Cochran Circle. You have enabled many dedicated students to receive the same high-quality education you received.

I know that you gain much satisfaction by contributing to a cause that reaches beyond your life and self-interests. So, I am extending an exclusive invitation for you to become a member in the Timothy Alden Council. As you prepare to renew your membership in the Cochran Circle, please consider the benefits of joining the Timothy Alden Council.

- Timothy Alden Council member card
- Timothy Alden Council 14K Gold gift tie tack or charm
- Invitation to the exclusive Timothy Alden Council receptions held on homecoming and reunion weekends
- Recognition in the Winter issue of Allegheny magazine
- Tax deduction on your 2006 tax-return

Rosalyn, please partner with me and other Allegheny alumni, who share your passion for supporting tomorrow's leaders. If you send your qualifying contribution by October 16, 2006, the President of Allegheny College will recognize you at the upcoming Timothy Alden Council reception on Homecoming weekend. Your invitation to this exclusive reception is enclosed.

Thank you for your dedication and support.

Sincerely,

Lisa A. Over
Executive Committee Chair

Rosalyn,

Thank you for your dedication to Allegheny College. I look forward to welcoming you as a new Timothy Alden Council member. Please join me on October 28th at the exclusive Timothy Alden Council reception, where I will honor you with your member gift and card in recognition of your generosity. Please send in your qualifying contribution by October 16th and mark your calendar for this exclusive event.

Marie Lynn Jones,
Allegheny College President
